

THE NETWORK FOR EXCELLENCE IN HEALTH INNOVATION

ON CALL
SERIES

HEALTH CARE FORECAST: WHAT TO EXPECT IN 2015

JANUARY 13, 2015
12:00 - 1:00 PM ET

The past year brought significant changes to the health care industry from insurance exchanges, to industry consolidation, mid-term elections, and rapid advances in mobile health and big data. What will 2015 bring? This NEHI On-Call features experts who will take out their crystal balls and forecast the coming changes in health care policy and delivery. Expect a lively discussion on how the new Congress will impact health care policy; what lies in store for the ACA; and what trends might disrupt the health care system.

Please join us for this member-only inside sneak-peek at what 2015 may bring.

FEATURING:

Joseph Antos
*Wilson H. Taylor Scholar in Health
Care and Retirement Policy,
American Enterprise Institute (AEI)*

Sarah Thomas
*Director of Research,
Center for Health Solutions,
Deloitte*

Moderator: Tom Hubbard, Vice President of Policy Research, NEHI

NEHI's "On Call" series offers our members regular updates of NEHI's research projects as well as exclusive access to national experts on the most pressing issues facing health care today. Dial in to hear how these issues impact NEHI's multi-sector membership of payers, providers, patient groups, employers and the biopharmaceutical and medical device industries.

Click Here to Register